

INSTITUTE
SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR
INSTITUTE
Presents

SPRING LECTURE SERIES '89

All talks to be held at the Simone de Beauvoir Institute,
Room 101 Lounge, 2170 Bishop, Montreal

Sherene Razack Topic: Feminism Applied to Law: The Women's Legal Education and Action Fund (LEAF)

Date: Monday, May 1, 1989

Time: 11:00 a.m.

Sherene Razack is a doctoral candidate at OISE in the Department of History and Philosophy. She is a Human Rights Educator.

Michele Pujol Topic: John Stuart Mill's Feminism: A Materialist
Feminist Assessment

Date: Friday, May 5, 1989

Time: 2:00 p.m.

Michele Pujol is a Ph.D. candidate in Economics at Simon Fraser University. She has taught economics at the University of Manitoba and has been the Coordinator of the Women's Studies Program there. She has done research and public speaking on economic policies which affect women, women in post-secondary education and non-traditional work, and women's studies.

Information: 848-2372

